

日本近世史料に見るオーロラ

岩橋清美<sup>1</sup>、オーロラ 4D プロジェクトメンバー<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> 主国文学研究資料館著

<sup>2</sup> 総研大学融合共同研究「オーロラと人間社会の過去・現在・未来」

Aurora written in Japanese Edo-period documents

Kiyomi Iwahashi<sup>1</sup>, Aurora 4D Project Member<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup>National Institute of Japanese Literature

<sup>2</sup>SOKENDAI Aurora4D Project

Aurora phenomena are written in personal diaries by peasant and merchant, and public diaries at Temples and Shrines, and official diaries at feudal domain in Edo-period.

By comparing each documents, it is getting clear the difference of understanding what is aurora between three different people understand aurora phenomena from above study.

References

Kataoka,R.,H.Isobe, H. Hayakawa, H. Tamazawa, A.D.Kawamura, K.Iwahashi, K.Yamamoto, M.Takei, T.Terashima, H.Suzuki, Y.rujiwara, and T.Nakamura
(2016),The earliest space weather monitoring of prolonged aurora activities
In Japanese in Japan and China, Submitted.